FORT KAMEHAMEHA, July 11.—Last Friday evening Lieutenant and Mrs. Stewart S. Griffin invited a few friends in to enjoy an evening of cards and a Welsh rarebit party. Those included in this delightful informal party were Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold DeF. Burdick, Captain and Mrs. Malcolm P. Andruss, Captain and Mrs. Otto H. Schrader, Lieutenant Philip G. Blackmore and the host and hostess.

Later, after an evening of spirited playing, a delicious chafing-dish supper was served.

Mrs. Hugh Wise and children of Schofield Barracks spent Tuesday at the post with Captain and Mrs. J. Perkins Barney.

Lieutenant George R. Meyer and Doctor Walter L. Reesman motor to Waimanalo and enjoyed the day last Sunday.

Major and Mrs. William Baird and Lieutenant and Mrs. John A. Baird were guests of Captain and Mrs. Jerome Pillow of Schofield Barracks for Sunday dinner. In the morning the party witnessed the polo game between the Cavalry and Field Artillery teams.

On Monday evening Captain and Mrs. Frederick L. Martin entertained at a charming little farewell dinner for Major John F. Curry, who left on the Maui this week, with Major Curry and Captain John B. Brooks as their guests.

Miss Dorothy Harker of Honolulu was the guest of Doctor and Mrs. Walter Reesman from Friday to Sunday last week.

On Sunday morning a jolly party went for a most enjoyable launch ride, as the guests of Major John F. Curry, in the little launch Lark. A swim at Punaloe beach was greatly enjoyed, after which the party rode in the launch around Pearl Harbor for an hour or so.

Major Curry's guests were Miss Marion Vogdes, Mrs. Walter Reesman, Miss Dorothy Harker, Miss Vivian Buckland, Mrs. Frederick L. Martin, and Captain John B. Brooks.

Captain Frederick L. Martin was Captain Malcolm P. Andruss' luncheon guest in Honolulu on Sunday, after which they attended the baseball game.

Mrs. Walter Reesman was the luncheon guest of Miss Dorothy Harker of Honolulu on Wednesday, the afternoon being spent swimming at Fort DeRussy.

Sunday visitors at the post were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. V. Forster of Honolulu and Captain and Mrs. George T. Perkins of Fort Armstrong.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Cythbert P. Stearns and Miss Frances Stearns left for Schofield Barracks this week after being stationed at Fort Kamehameha for a little less than a month. Lieutenant Stearns, who with Captain Barney was in charge of the Cavalry troops here, has been relieved by Lieutenant Weiss, who arrived at the post on Monday. Lieutenant Weiss is living in the quarters just vacated by Lieutenant Stearns.

At the sailing of the Matson boat this week a large number of Major John F. Curry's friends were at the wharf to bid him goodbye. Major Curry will receive his orders upon his arrival in San Francisco, and there is a strong possibility of his going to France, as he ranks high in the Aviation Corps.

Major Curry has made numerous friends during his stay here and his departure is greatly regretted.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Malcolm P. Andruss, Mrs. Otto Schrader, Lieut. Philip G. Blackmore and Lieut. guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Harold De F. Burdick for an informal evening, which was spent playing cards.

Another passenger from Kamehameha who left on the Maui was Miss Marian Vogdes, who is returning to her home in San Diego after a visit of several months with Mrs. J. H. Lee Holcombe. Miss Vogdes, who is a beautiful and very accomplished member of the younger set, has been entertained extensively during her stay.

At the wharf on Wednesday several Kamehameha people were noticed. Among them were Col. Alfred M. Hunter, Capt. John Lee Holcombe, Mrs. George Rublen, Mrs. J. H. Lee Holcombe, Mrs. Walter Reesman, Capt. John B. Brooks, Lieut. Philys G. Blackmore and others.

Mrs. George A. Blackmore and Lieut. Philip G. Blackmore were the guests of Capt. and Mrs. George Clark of Pearl Harbor on Thursday evening. The party motored in to Honolulu and enjoyed the moving pictures at the Liberty theater.

Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm P. Andruss had Lieut. and Mrs. Stewart S. Griffin as their guests in Honolulu on Tuesday evening at a jolly "chop suey" dinner, afterwards attending the show at the Bijou theater.

Miss Louise Clark of Pearl Harbor was a charming dinner hostess on Tuesday when she entertained for Miss Eleanor Garley of Honolulu, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Lieut. Robert Sharrett, and Lieut. Robert Guyer, of Fort Shafter; Lieut. Philip G. Blackmore of Fort Kamehameha, and Lieut. Glenn Howell of the navy yard.

Later in the evening the party motored to the Country Club and joined in the dancing.

Maj. John F. Curry was present at the Country Club dance on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Walter Reesman was a luncheon guest on Thursday of Mrs. Marshall B. Henshaw of Honolulu, and in the afternoon at a tea given by Mrs. Henshaw for Miss Vera Henshaw of California.

Maj. and Mrs. Guy Palmer, Miss Palmer and Miss Barbara Palmer were dinner guests of Paymaster and Mrs. George Dyer at the navy yard on Sunday, attending the Fort Kamehameha "movies" in the evening.

Lieut. and Mrs. Stewart S. Griffin were dinner guests on Friday of Capt. and Mrs. J. Perrine Barney.

Capt. and Mrs. Frederick L. Martin entertained Capt. and Mrs. Walter C. Baker and Mrs. Bradley at a delicious lobster supper on Thursday evening in Honolulu.

Miss Helen Ohmstad is spending a few days in Honolulu as the guest of Col. and Mrs. James McRae and Miss McRae.

Gen. Charles Treat was a visitor on Monday at the Post.

Mrs. Malcolm P. Andruss and Miss Ethel Andruss were guests at Sunday dinner with Mrs. Frederick L. Martin.

Mrs. J. H. Lee Holcombe, Miss Marian Vogdes and Capt. John Lee Holcombe were guests at the Country Club for luncheon on Sunday.

On Sunday Lieut. and Mrs. Harold De F. Burdick entertained at a delightful supper for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Swift of Honolulu. In the evening they went to see Vivian Martin in "The Wax Model" at the Post theater.

Capt. and Mrs. Lawrence Crawford of Honolulu were callers last Saturday evening at Fort Kamehameha.

Last Tuesday evening Capt. John L. Curry was the dinner guest of Capt. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan of Fort Shafter.

—In one of the mining towns of Arizona there is a church that has an excellent pastor, but the attendance, unfortunately, is small. Among the members is a rather attractive young widow. One evening, when the attendance had been unusually small, she met the deacon after service, who shook her hand heartily and asked: "How did you like the sermon?" "I think it was just too perfectly lovely for anything," gushed the widow, "but the congregation was so small tonight that every time the preacher said
